Writing Task: Formal Letter

Scenario: A new neighbourhood is being planned in your area. The Chairperson of your local Residents' Association will help decide how it is built. Write a formal letter to the Chairperson persuading them that sustainable settlements bring many benefits to the people who live there.

Write 150-200 words.

In your letter you should:

- explain at least three benefits of a sustainable settlement (for example: cleaner air, less waste, green spaces, lower costs, safer and healthier communities)
- give an example or reason for each benefit
- use persuasive language to convince the reader
- finish by asking for action (for example, to support a sustainable plan)

Formal Letter Format

1. Your address (top right)
2. Date (below your address)
3. Recipient's name, title and address (left side)
4. Greeting: Dear Mr/Ms [Surname], or Dear Sir/Madam, if you don't know the name
5. Subject line (optional, in bold): e.g., Benefits of Sustainable Settlements
6. Paragraph 1 (Introduction): say who you are and why you are writing
7. Paragraphs 2-3 (Body): explain the benefits with reasons and examples
8. Final paragraph (Conclusion): sum up and ask for action
9. Sign-off: Yours sincerely, (if you used their name) or Yours faithfully, (if you wrote "Dear Sir/Madam")
10. Your full name
