THE STORY OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS (TIMELINE)

1. 1215 - MAGNA CARTA (ENGLAND)

King John was forced by the nobles to sign the Magna Carta.

It limited the power of the king and recognised some basic rights like fair trial and due process of law.

2. 1689 - ENGLISH BILL OF RIGHTS (ENGLAND)

It protected the rights of people and limited the power of the monarch.

It established ideas like freedom of speech in Parliament and no cruel punishment.

3. 1776 - AMERICAN DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE (USA)

It declared that all people have natural rights - life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

4. 1789 - FRENCH DECLARATION OF THE RIGHTS OF MAN AND OF THE CITIZEN

It declared freedom, equality and fraternity as the rights of every person.

It was a big step towards universal human rights.

5. 1945 - UNITED NATIONS CHARTER

After the Second World War, the UN was established to promote peace, equality and respect for human rights for all.

6. 1948 - UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS (UDHR)

Adopted by the UN General Assembly on 10 December 1948. It lists 30 basic human rights that everyone is entitled to.

7. 1966 - INTERNATIONAL COVENANTS ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Two important treaties were adopted:

- ICCPR - Civil and Political Rights
- ICESCR - Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

These treaties made human rights legally binding for countries that signed them.

8. LATER DEVELOPMENTS

Many other documents and laws were created to protect specific rights of women, children, refugees, persons with disabilities, workers and indigenous peoples.

9. TODAY

Human rights continue to evolve.

Countries work together to protect these rights and ensure a just, equal and peaceful world for everyone.

10. IN SHORT...

Human rights started as ideas to limit power and protect people.

Over time, they grew into global laws and agreements to ensure dignity and equality for all.
