

Measures of Central Tendency

Measures of Central Tendency

Term	Simple Definition	Example
Mean	The sum of all the values divided by the number of values. It also called average.	2, 4, 6 → Mean = $12 \div 3 = 4$
Median	The middle value when the data is arranged in ascending or descending order . If there are two middle values, find their mean.	2, 4, 5, 7, 9 → Median = 5
Mode	The value that occurs most frequently in a data set.	2, 3, 3, 4, 5 → Mode = 3
Range	The difference between the highest value and the lowest value in a data set.	2, 4, 7, 9 → Range = $9 - 2 = 7$

